Who uses the language?

The language is a national language

The language is used internationally

The language is used by all generations

The language has an identificational function for its native community (but is no longer used fluently by all generations)

The language is extinct

Level 10 Extinct

Level 0 International

Level 1 National

Level 2 Provincial

Level 3 Wider communication

Level 4 Educational

Level 5 Developing

Level 6a Vigorous

Level 6b Threatened

Level 7 Shifting

Level 8a Moribund

Level 8b Nearly extinct

Level 9 Dormant

Level 10 Extinct

All conditions for sustainable literacy are satisfied

The language is used in written form

The language is used orally by all generations and the conditions for sustainable orality are satisfied

The grandparent generation have reasonable opportunity to speak the language amongst themselves

The child-bearing generation use the language amongst themselves (but do not normally pass it on to their children)

The language is extinct

There are still some people who speak the language

The language is dormant

The language is nearly extinct

The language is moribund

The language is used in written form

The language is also used as a trade language

The language is used internationally

The language is used in written form

Level 6b Threatened

Level 7 Shifting

Level 8a Moribund

Level 8b Nearly extinct

Level 9 Dormant

Level 10 Extinct

Who uses the language?